

Bruce Vandenbrink

Bruce is a married father of two girls and has two grandchildren. Chilliwack has been home for most of his life but he did pursue his business degree from SFU and articulated at KPMG to attain his CPA designation. When he returned to Chilliwack in 1994, he took a job at Canex Building Supplies and has been involved in the ownership group at Canex since then. Bruce loves to work with Canex customers and staff. In his spare time, he enjoys hiking with a group of friends and raced in triathlons for a number of years. One of his passions is sports, more specifically the Canucks and Seahawks. Serving in the community is an important part of Bruce's life and he believes if everyone serves in our community it will be a better place. Bruce has been involved in the foundation for the last six months. The livability of the city of Chilliwack has always been important to him and he believes a great hospital is an important part of that. He enjoys getting people engaged in things that are important to our community. "The Hospital Foundation is key to fill in the gaps that exist in the existing provincial funding model. The Chilliwack Hospital Foundation helps to save lives and improve people's quality of life. "
